O God, our sustainer and our keeper, we thank You this morning for our early rise. We thank You for touching us and allowing us to share together in this day, this wonderful day, a day that only You can make. We thank You, God, for Gator Day. We thank You for the University of Florida. We thank You for the contribution of this wonderful institution and we pray Your blessings upon this institution and all other institutions. We thank You for our wonderful nation. We thank You for our wonderful state. We pray Your blessings upon us and pray that You would continue to keep us and to hold us. We thank You, God, for Your divine favor on the University of Florida. We thank You for Your blessings that You have rendered to us this week. We thank You for being with us this week, and we thank You for allowing us to bring a National Championship to the state of Florida.

Now, God, we pray that You would bless us today. Bless those persons who You have placed in leadership. We pray that You would bless their deliberations today. Continue to keep us, and continue to guide us and lead us and direct us. We pray for peace for our nation. We pray for our families. We pray for our children. We pray for those persons who stand in the gap and protect us and keep us in the armed forces. We pray for a better America. We pray for a better state. We pray for the work You have placed in our hands. Bless all of our work. Bless our coming and our going. Keep us in Your care and we will pray that You would always be pleased with us. Amen.
